DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to applicant's amendment filed September 1, 2006. Claim 3 has been amended. Claims 1-20 are pending in this case.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a Global Cargo Container Information Clearinghouse, system and method of operation thereof, classified in class 705, subclass 21.
 - II. Claims 11-20, drawn to a method for controlling shipment of cargo containers, classified in class 705, subclass 51.
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
4. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination II has separate utility such as controlling shipment cargo containers with or without the use of a global information clearinghouse, that is, invention II may be using a smaller individual clearinghouse for each port, for example. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
5. The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR

Art Unit: 3621

1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

6. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is advised that, in the event of choosing Invention I, said Invention I is further subject to an election of species, as follows.

8. Claims 1, 5 and 8 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species:

IA. Claim 2, drawn to a Global Cargo Container Information Clearinghouse, system and method of operation thereof, and further comprising a mutual benefit association including commercial entities and government agencies.

IB. Claims 3 and 6, a Global Cargo Container Information Clearinghouse, system and method of operation thereof, and wherein the GCCIC system provides products to the users of the GCCIC.

Art Unit: 3621

IC. Claims 4 and 9-10, a Global Cargo Container Information Clearinghouse, system and method of operation thereof, and further comprising an incentives program to encourage compliance.

ID. Claim 7, a Global Cargo Container Information Clearinghouse, system and method of operation thereof, and further comprising a GCCIC service provider that provides technical assistance.

9. The species are independent or distinct because each may be implemented separately from the others.

10. Applicant is also advised that, in the event of choosing Invention II, said Invention II is further subject to an election of species, as follows.

11. Claim 11 is generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species:

IIA. Claims 12-13, drawn to a method for controlling shipment of cargo containers, and further establishing a service provider to provide technical assistance.

IIB. Claims 14, drawn to a method for controlling shipment of cargo containers, and further comprising a series of incentives.

IIC. Claims 15-19, drawn to a method for controlling shipment of cargo containers and further including a series of steps for monitoring compliance.

IID. Claim 20, drawn to a method for controlling shipment of cargo containers and further comprising generating updated risk assessment.

12. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

13. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

14. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

15. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

16. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
